SOLDIERS IN CHARGE OF ST. PETERSBURG

Strikers Continuing Agitation With Unabated Activity.

MILLS SURROUNDED BY POLICE

Workingmen Parade Main Streets and Are Closing Every Industrial Establishment in Center of City—People Are Warned Not to Assemble.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—The strikers are continuing their agitation with unabated activity. Throughout the morning they have been parading the main streets of the center of the city and closing every industrial establishment.

The plan of the authorities is to prevent the workmen tomorrow from entering the city proper. The industrial sections beyond the Natria, Moscow and Nevsky gate will be cut off, and all the bridges will be guarded. Several batteries of artillery have been brought into the city.

St. Petersburg, this morning presents the appearance of a beleaguered city. The military are in complete possession. The streets are lined with troops, galloping squadrons of cavalry are seen everywhere, gendarmes are concealed in all the court yards and the closed factories and mills are surrounded by cordons of police and Cossacks. On every bulletin board is posted the government's proclamation warning the people against assembling.

The agitation hitherto has been carried on with remarkable absence of actual violence, the committee of the union having issued instructions that everything be done as quietly as possible and that no personal violence be offered the police. Street traffic leading thoroughfares is badly interfered with, the demonstrators filling the streets, policemen making way for passing sledges.

A list of the 174 works closed as the result of yesterday's coercive measures shows that every industry is involved, including the railway construction and electrical engineers. In view of the probable failure of the electric supply stores and offices, householders are laying in large stocks of candles.

The public is nervous and excited, and the opinion is freeley expressed that the government will be forced to concede the demands of the men.

Despite the energetic measures taken to insure the safety of the city, the inhabitants are in a state of terror. The wildest rumors regarding the intentions of the mob are afloat, and many small retailers did not open their shops this morning.

An edict has gone forth that no shop must open tomorrow when the great assemblage on the palace square is scheduled to take place. Although the authorities seemingly are determined to prevent it, preparations for the gigantic demonstration are proceeding, the men declaring that they are ready to die in their tracks.

Two regiments of infantry have been brought here from Riga. Nevertheless the authorities are extremely nervous realizing that blood once spilled in the present temper of the excited men, spurred on by socialist agitators, it is impossible to predict the end.

The emperor's advisers, however, declare he must put down the agitation with a firm hand, and that if he yields as Louis XVI did at Versailled, all may be lost. The present resolution of the government is not to give way.

The situation is altogether most critical. It is said the revolutionists proposed to prevent the demonstration tomorrow and have issued instructions to the men that they must go to the palace square with their wives and children "but the men must be armed."

"We must first show we are peaceful," said one leader. "Our last hope is the emperor himself. If he refuses to see us and orders us to disperse, then we must fight."

Father Gopon has had a guard of 400 Assord workmen formed to protected the emperor from harm if he will come to the palace square tomorrow. Among the rumors afloat is one to the effect that the famous Prepriojensky guard regiment has declared it would refuse to fire on the mob, but this, like many other sensational return reports pertaining to widespread disaffection in the army is not confirmed.

All the cavalry regiments have been called in from the barracks in the surrounding districts and are concentrated in St. Petersburg. They will form an extended cordon to prevent demonstrators from approaching the palace.

CLEVER FORGER ARRESTED.

Also Rifled Letter Boxes—Bond Is Fixed at $5,000.

New York, Jan. 23.—Through a blunder in opening an account with the Monroe bank under two names, Henry Amsel has fallen into the hands of the police on charges that he is one of the cleverest forgers and letter box rifflers in the country. He is now held in default of $5,000 bonds.

Amsel is alleged to have operated in the east for three years, but constant search was fruitless until he was identified by an employe of the Monroe bank, on the East Side, where he had opened an account in the name of a business man. He deposited, it is alleged, several checks of the Mansfield firm, and later appeared to draw all of the money except a few dollars. Then the paying teller recognized him as having some time ago having been a customer under another name, and detectives were placed on Amsel's trail. His arrest followed, and the detectives assert that many banks, especially on the East Side, in this city, are interested in the capture.

Amsel is said to be the owner of several horses now running at Ascot Park, Los Angeles.

LOOK FOR AMICABLE END.

Threatened Strike on Pennsylvania Road May Be Averted.

Philadelphia, Jan. 23.—Matters at issue between Pennsylvania railroad and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen which have for several days past threatened a strike, are progressing toward an amicable settlement and the concensus of opinion today on both sides is that an amicable settlement will soon be reached.

The adjustment board of the brotherhood met today to discuss yesterday's conference with General Manager Atterbury and to better prepare themselves for a complete understanding with Mr. Atterbury when the conference is resumed in the latter's office at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

News has also been received here that the Chilean Navigation company is to enter the central American business via Panama.

MR. BRYAN CALLS AT WHITE HOUSE

Democratic Leader Cordially Received By President.

OTHER NATIONAL CAPITAL NEWS

Mr. Bryan Agrees With President Roosevelt on His Railroad Policy and Hopes to See an Income Tax Law Enacted by Congress.

Washington, Jan. 23.—William J. Bryan called on President Roosevelt at the White House today. He was cordially greeted by Mr. Roosevelt as well as by a number of Republican senators and representatives who happened to be in the executive offices at the time of his visit.

"You are certainly looking well, Mr. Bryan," said Senator Cullom, of Illinois, as they shook hands.

"Yes, but I am a little too fat. I could spare you some of my flesh," said the Nebraskan, as he looked at the thin form of the Illinois senator.

"Well, you're growing," remarked Senator Cullom, "in fact, you are growing in more ways than one," whereupon Mr. Bryan smiled and, after a few more words with Mr. Cullom walked into the offices.

Befeore he could get to the president's doorkeeper, a dozen people stopped him and shook his hand. Mr. Bryan was ushered into the cabinet room, which was filled with people.

The president was engaged in an adjoining room with Senator Proctor, but as soon as he learned that the noted Democrat was in the cabinet room, went to him and grasped his hand cordially.

"Come in here," said the president, who piloted Mr. Bryan into his private room where, joined by Former Senator Jones, of Arkansas, they remained for five or ten minutes.

At the conclusion of the interview Mr. Bryan said to newspaper reporters that his talk with the president had been cordial and satisfactory, and that they had discussed several matters.

"It was a pleasure to commend his attitude on some things," said Mr. Bryan.

"Not on all things," he was asked.

"Oh, of course not," said Mr. Bryan. "I believe in speaking well of any policy that is good, regardless of what party is supporting it. I have often been accused of being a Populist merely because I have given my support to some things advocated by that party. I suppose I will now be accused of being a Republican because I agree with President Roosevelt's policy on some things. The president is right in his demand for the railroad legislation and I told him so. I also think that Mr. Garfield, of the bureau of corporations is right in recommending that corporations be required to take out federal licenses. I likewise believe in an income tax and hope to see it brought about."

"How may it be brought about?"

"By constitutional amendment," Mr. Bryan suggested.

Mr. Bryan said he would leave Washington tomorrow night and go to New York, where he is scheduled to attend two banquets.

In the House.

Washington, Jan 23.—Before continuing consideration of the Indian appropriation bill the house on convening today agreed to a resolution authorizing the secretary of war to transfer to a militia cavalry organization of Chattanooga, Tenn., a certain unused portion of a national cemetery on the reservation at that place.

The pensions appropriation bill was then taken up.

In the Senate.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Mr. Frye opened the session of the senate today by presenting the re-election credentials of his colleague, Mr. Hale.

A resolution instructing the committee on interstate commerce to sit during sessions of the senate in order to permit the taking of testimony of the railroad rate question, was passed.

In Regard to Venezuela.

Washington, Jan. 23.—It has been learned that not only has President Roosevelt terminated his negotiations with Minister Bowen relating to the settlement of the issues between the United States and Venezuela, but he has done the same with the diplomatic representatives of the European powers, also charged with negotiations touching claims of their own governments of a like character.

DRY GOODS MEN IN SESSION.

Manufacturers and Commission Men Also Represented.

New York, Jan. 23.—At the second and closing session of the wholesale dry goods association annual meeting there has been protracted discussion of the custom of the direct sales to retailers by manufacturers and commission merchants.

Twenty prominent New York commission merchants and representatives of mills took part in the long discussion. Manufacturing representatives as well as commission merchants, promised to co-operate with the association in an effort to save the jobbers.

Before the jobbing question came up the association considered the report of a committee appointed to go into the subject of the extension of a parcels post system of doing business. Much opposition was expressed toward any extension of the parcel post and it was decided that managers of the association should lay the views of the wholesalers before their local representatives.

Widespread formation of syndicates in the smaller cities whereby the local merchants pool their orders and deal directly with the manufacturers was condemned.

FORMING A NEW CABINET.

President of France Has a Difficult Task Before Him.

Paris, Jan. 23.—President Loubet this morning sent for M. Rouvier and invited him to form a new cabinet. M. Rouvier replied that he would consult with his friends and know his determination at the earliest possible moment. This is expected to lead to the formation of a Rouvier ministry after he has assured himself that he had sufficient support to command a majority of the chambers.

The president gave significant evidence of his desire which expressed condolences on the recent death of his mother. M. Loubet said he never had greater need of comfort and sympathy, and he was glad of the opportunity to make an appeal to the representatives of parliament for unity, concord and reconciliation, which were seen today in the interest of the public and the country.

Traveling Man Goes Insane.

Atlanta, Jan. 23.—His memory gone, his wife and daughter forgotten, W. R. McGregor, said to be of Roswell, Ga., is detained at the Atlanta police station in the sleepers' ward. Late Friday afternoon passengers on a Peachtree car bound for Brookwood noticed with amazement the strange behavior of a man sitting in the car. He was not violent, but his nervousness was apparent to all. When he reached the end of the line passengers inquired of him the trouble and soon learned that he had forgotten his name, his occupation and, in fact, all of his past life.

To Prevent Tuberculosis.

New York, Jan. 23.—Dr. Livingston Farrand, professor of anthropology at Columbia university has been named as head of the national association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis. The association was organized a year ago at a meeting in this city. The assistant curator of the American Museum of National History of New York was associated with Franz Boas in 1897, in organizing the Jesuit Pacific expedition made a study of the earliest peoples in northwestern America and eastern Asia.

President to Visit Williams College.

Troy, N. Y., Jan. 23.—President Roosevelt, who is stated to have accepted the invitation of Williams college to attend the commencement in June, will address the degree of L.L.D. The president will visit Williamstown on June 20 and 21, and remain a day or two as the guest of Henry Hopkins. He will also visit Harvard on th 25th anniversary of graduation of his class.

SENATOR SMOOT STILL ON STAND

Committee Room Crowded By Interested Spectators.

CORRECTS TESTIMONY OF FRIDAY

Senator Smoot Is Suffering from an Attack of Indigestion—Several Members Heretofore Absent Now Attending Committee Meetings.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Attracted by the announcement that Senator Smoot would today continue his testimony before the senate committee on privileges and elections which is investigating the protests against the senator retaining his seat a crowd gathered early today.

Several members of the committee who have not been attending the hearings regularly were present.

Senator Smoot was still suffering from the attack of indigestion which was responsible for an early adjournment yesterday. The senator took the witness stand at 10:30 and before proceeding he made a correction in his testimony concerning trials of apostles. He said the quorum of apostles has the right to depose one of its members and the 12 apostles is the only quorum that has that right. Several other minor corrections were made. In carrying out the decisions of the quorum, the senator said he does not understand that the minority must join with the majority.

The first time he heard of the plural marriage of Benjamin Cluff, president of the Brigham Young university, said the senator, was in 1902, when he was told by Jesse Knight. The senator said he had heard from Mr. Knight that Cluff's new plural wife was the daughter of George Reynolds. Except for the investigation of the subject, looking to the dropping of Cluff from the university presidency which was explained at the hearing, the senator said he had made no further inquiry. He said Cluff was removed a year later and was succeeded by George Brimhall, who, the senator admitted, was then living with a plural wife. He said he was not present, but would have voted for Brimhall if he had been at the meeting.

"You consider the position of president of the university purely ecclesiastical then?" asked Mr. Taylor.

"I think it is."

"Then the rule laid down by you, which would have controlled your vote for Apostle Penrose, a polygamist, would apply to the election of Brimhall?"

"I think the same rule would apply. I don't think I would vote for him for a Federal officer. There are some polygamist I would not vote for and some that I would. I would vote for a man like Brimhall for a state office," aswered the senator.

The distinction he made was that Brimhall had taken no plural wives since the manifesto, but was living with a plural wife for the reason that his lawful wife was in an insane asylum. He admitted first that he believed that Mr. Brimhall was violating the spirit of the law, and pressed by Chairman Burrows, said that Brimhall was also violating the "letter of the law." However, the condition of the first wife was an extenuating circumstance.

"What," again asked Chairman Burrows, "do you think it is an extenuating circumstance for a man to marry another woman and to have children by her because his legal wife is in an insane asylum?"

"No, I hardly think that."

"Have you any doubt about it? Do you think it was an extenuating circumstance because the first wife was insane?"

"Perhaps I could put it as broad as that. I think it would be."

Fire Almost Destroys Town.

Hillsboro, Tex., Jan. 23.—Fire late last night destroyed a full block of business houses, entailing a loss of $30,000, with partial insurance. Fire Friday destroyed buildings valued at $35,000, and this second conflagration leaves the town practically devastated. The fires are believed to have been of incendiary origin.

DR. STROUSE IS STIRRING DENVER

A Leading Spirit in the Great Colorado City's Revival.

CONVERTS ARE NUMEROUS

One Hundred and Thirty-Seven Were Converted at One Meeting Held by Dr. Strouse—City is Deeply Stirred, and Stores Closed.

A wonderful revival is now in progress in Denver, Colo. All the churches of the great city are united, and hundreds are being converted. Dr. Clarence Strouse is in charge of the first district of the city, composed of fifteen churches. Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman and other evangelists are in charge of other sections.

The meetings are now in the third week. The business houses closed for the day of prayers so great is general interest.

The Denver News, The Post and The Republican are all filled with reports of the meetings. They give large cuts of Dr. Strouse and speak of him as "the eloquent young Virginian."

The papers report one hundred and thirty-seven as converted in one service held by Dr. Strouse, which it describes as "a most remarkable meeting." Several of the theatres are being opened for meetings.

We clip the following from an account given by one reporter:

"Because of his familiarity with gilded circles and his success among the world-weary society folk, Dr. Strouse enjoys the title of "The Society Evangelist." He looks the part to perfection. Attired in the most correct of street suits, with a natty Ascot tie, his blonde head surmounted by a derby, this youthful evangelist looks like he had just come from taking tea with some of the 400. But the likeness ends there. When he begins to speak the society man has vanished and it is the honest, earnest Christian who talks to you.

"Tears silently, majestically, followed one after the other down the furrowed cheeks of strong men, women buried their faces in handkerchiefs and little children grasped their hands tightly and wondered, while Dr. Strouse, in his crowded meeting last night, gave a graphic portrayal of the departure of the soul from the body and made a touching appeal for those in the audience still unsaved to take a decisive step before too late.

"Barely out of his twenties, with only a few years separating him from paddock and church, and still looking like a husky young college football player in everyday clothes, with his six-foot one of bone and muscle, the young evangelist took his audience gently but firmly, leading it step by step down life's pathway to the last farewell to earthly friends, where the goats passed on the one side and the sheep passed on the other; "where," said the young man, "the mother passes on the right and in anguish sees her husband passing down the path on the left; where the sister, passing joyfully in the flock of sheep, suddenly spies a brother mingling with the lost."

At the close of the sermon, while the choir softly sang "Just As I Am," the earnest young fisher of men urged those of his audience who were not already sure, to come forward. Fully a tenth of the thousand persons streamed to the altar, where each was given a hearty handshake and the young minister's blessing and prayer.

It was a great scene.

Had a Big Hunt.

A jolly trio of Georgians hailing from Savannah, who were at Spring Park Farm as the guests of Manager N. A. Callison for three of four days days, have returned to their home. The party comprised J. M. Dixon, president of the city council; Mr. Gadsden, director of public works, and Hal P. Bacon, member of the firm of Bacon & Sons, extensive lumber merchants of the Forest City. They came for the purpose of a few days' hunt on the farm, and were not disappointed, as they enjoyed fine luck, and Mr. Callison made everything as pleasant as possible for them.

These gentlemen are well pleased with the farm, which they enthusiastically declare is one of the prettiest estates they have ever seen. They have promised to return as the opportunity presents.

WOMEN WHO CHARM

HEALTH IS THE FIRST ESSENTIAL

It Helps Women to Win and Hold Men's Admiration, Respect and Love

Woman's greatest gift s the power to inspire admiration, respect, and love. There is a beauty in health which is more attractive to men than mere regularity of feature.

Mrs. Chas. F. Brown

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study. At the first indication of ill-health, painful or irregular menstruation, headache or backache, secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin its use.

Mrs. Chas. F. Brown, Vice-President Mothers' Club, 21 Cedar Terrace, Hot Springs, Ark., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For nine years I dragged through a miserable existence, suffering with inflammation and falling of the womb, and worn out with pain and weariness. I one day noticed a statement by a woman suffering as I was, but who had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I determined to try it. At the end of three months I was a different woman. Every one remarked about it, and my husband fell in love with me all over again. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound built up my entire system, cured the womb trouble, and I felt like a new woman. I am sure it will make every suffering woman strong, well and happy, as it has me."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhœa, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, or nervous prostration may be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

BIDS ARE REJECTED.

Postmaster Arnow Received Instruction From Treasury Department.

Postmaster Geo. J. Arnow has received the following letter from the treasury department relative to the proposed public building for Gainesville, which will prove of interest at this time:

"Referring to the proposals for the construction of the building to be erected on the site in your custody, received under advertisement dated November 16, 1904, and opened December 21, 1904, you are advised that in accordance with the approval of the department all the bids received have been rejected, the lowest bidder having withdrawn his proposal, on account of the alleged mistake in his figures, and all the other bids being in excess of the amount available for the work.

"Respectfully,

"J. K. Taylor,

"Supervising Architect."

In speaking of the above, Postmaster Arnow states that this action will in no way affect the construction of the building, but it will now be necessary to ask for new bids. In the meantime our representatives in Congress will exercise their efforts to secure the desired increased appropriation.

Hamlet, N. C., Has Great Fire.

Hamlet, N. C., Jan. 22.—About 12 o'clock fire started in Hinson's stables, buring the stables, Ormon's saloon, Lackey's saloon, McLeod's saloon, Spraight's grocery store, Mrs. Steel's boarding house, Thomas' beef market, Thomas' restaurant, J. D. Goodwin's store. The fire was still raging at 1 o'clock, and bids fair to wipe out most of the business portion of the town. The telegraph operators, on concluding the above dispatch, stated that he was forced to leave his post, therefore no further particulars could be secured.

GREAT THOUGHTS.

They Have the Gift of Immortal Youth and Strength.

The influence of the law of action and reaction can be traced more clearly in those everyday human affairs which come under our individual observation than in the greater movements of mankind which are often imperfectly recorded. We act and are acted upon. The people we meet make an impression on us; the impression may be for the moment or it may last through life. Bloom, fragrance, grace, harmony, beauty, majesty, affect us agreeably; deformity, imbecility, distress, cruelty, affect us unpleasantly. The plea of the unfortunate, the thought of our visitor, the opinion in the newspaper, the issues of the time, impress us in accordance with our moods or natures. Certain words, tones, sights, awaken echoes within us of old happiness or pain.

There are words and tones which produce beautiful reactions—the lullabies of the mother, the endearments of the lover, the voice of sympathy, the enchantment of music, the messages of the poets, the trumpet calls to honor and duty. And there are words which produce misunderstanding, confusion, aversion, anger—the words of whining, complaining, fault finding, of envy, jealousy, slander, of malice, intolerance, brutality.

The response to the public speaker is reciprocal to his power. If he be dull, the hearers are wearied; if he be convincing, courageous, forceful, the audience will kindle, and he may rouse them to laughter or tears, to indignation or fury, to generosity or sacrifice. He may change the opinions and convictions of some and the course of the lives of others; he may even save a city from slaughter or make a state. If his thought be really great, it may live through many ages, stirring generation after generation. The reaction of moral effort may be prolonged; it may even gain force with time, indicating its connection with some stupendous primal energy. The echo of a great physical convulsion dies quickly, but the echo of the words of Confucius and Buddha, of Plato, Seneca and Christ, still lives. The voice of Socrates before his judges kindles men whose ancestors were untamed savages when Socrates spoke. Buildings decay, monuments fall, rivers run dry, races decline, but a great thought suffers from no impairment or decrepitude; it has the gift of immortal youth and strength.—From "Balance: The Fundamental Verity," by Orlando J. Smith.

Why Some Folks Go to Europe.

When New York society doesn't know what else to do it goes abroad. An ambitious woman gets wind of some rival's intended function. Not to be invited or not to be seen among the guests means a slight easily endured if the world be not cognizant of the fact, but intolerant if it is; therefore the ambitious woman sails away to Europe. She may not be gone six weeks, but her absence is thus to be accounted for. In other cases it is known that society takes this absent treatment to cure heart troubles, to escape social obligations that weigh too heavily on the income or, again, from sheer ennui it departs. This restlessness of certain sets in society would be dangerous were it not for the safety valve which that really overworked Atlantic ocean has become of late years. When all else fails, go to Europe.—Boston Herald.

The Beautiful.

Beauty prevails in spite of all we do. We may build ugly buildings, we may think ugly thoughts, we may wrinkle ourselves in worries or the contemplation of ugliness, we may even worship ugliness under the name of utility, but lightly, without an effort, the gentle hand of beauty descends upon all. Beauty may do her subtle work in many ways. Sun, moon, fog and rain are alike her servants. The fresh red houses, garish eyesores in the sun, become wonderful as they loom blood red before the man in the mist, or in a few years the red is quieted, and the searching light only makes it more beautiful.—Arthur Ransome.

AN ACQUISITION.

W. W. Ashley Will Solicit Business in Future for The Sun.

The Sun desires to announce to the people of Gainesville and the surrounding country, that it has secured the services of W. W. Ashley, a newspaper worker for many years, and quite well and favorably known in Gainesville, who will devote his time to soliciting subscribers, advertising and job printing, and also receive any items of local news for the paper.

It is the aim of the publisher to make The Sun a paper in keeping with the progress of our city, and this can only be done by the hearty co-operation of our citizens. The better the patronage the better the paper, and the statement that a city has a daily paper is always indicative of a busy town.

W. W. ASHLEY.

How good a paper shall be depends on the publisher and its patrons. If the paper does not come up to your idea of what it should be, don't "knock," but try to "boost" it. As in the past The Sun will in the future labor for the best interests of Gainesville, and when one stops to consider that the columns of a paper are the stock in trade of the publisher, the same as the goods on the merchants' shelves, then it can be easily figured how much a paper gratuitously advertises a city each year, which brings as much benefit to the property owner or merchant as to the paper.

If you do not take The Sun now, try it for a month, when called on by Mr. Ashley, and we assure you it will contain all the local as well as general news of the day.

We will also be glad to receive any favors in the line of advertising and job printing, and give you value received.

ODD FELLOWS' HOME.

Items Concerning the People at This Popular Resort.

Gustavus Culp of Gettysburg, Pa., who is on a tour of Florida, is a guest at the Home for a few weeks.

George B. Nikodem of Chicago arrived at the Home on Sunday, to remain for an indefinite period. He is an old time Odd Fellow.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Edwards, accompanied by Mrs. M. Dougherty of Lafayette, Ind., paid a visit to Windsor on Sunday, where a large number of Indiana people are spending the winter.

O. P. Morgan has made himself popular with the lady and gentlemen boarders by treating most of them to a carriage ride on Sunday. He hitched a span of his fine driving mules to a three-seated surry and they all had the pleasure of viewing some of the romantic scenery about Gainesville.

Some of the guests visited the city school on Monday morning and witnessed the opening exercises. They were pleased with the manner the pupils performed their parts and the courtesies extended by Prof. J. G. Kellum. Master Carthel Byars and Miss Florence Wilcox of the Home are attending the school.

Five Americans Murdered.

Nogales, Ariz., Jan. 23.—The bodies of five Americans who were murdered yesterday in Sonora, Mexico, by Yaqui Indians, were brought here today. The dead men are said to have lately come from somewhere in Illinois.

Imperfect Indigestion

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

A PROMINENT

Lawyer Praises Vinol.

Druggist W. M. Johnson states he is continually receiving such letters as the following in regard to his famous cod liver oil preparation, Vinol.

Mr. John Kinney of 812 West 29th St., Indianapolis, Ind., one of the most noted lawyers of the State of Indiana, writes: "The Grip left me in a nervous, weakened, run-down condition. I took Vinol with the very best of results. It made me feel like a different man, and I am now better and stronger than I have been for years.

Said Mr. Johnson: "There is nothing equals Vinol to restore strength after sickness, to build up the aged, run-down, weak or debilitated, to cure stomach troubles or chronic colds, coughs or bronchitis. What Vinol did for Mr. Kinney I can guarantee it will do for others or I will return the money paid me for it every time.

"Remember Vinol is not a patent medicine; everything in it is printed on the bottle. It contains in a concentrated form all of the curative, strength creating properties contained in cod liver oil, without a drop of the oil. No one will dispute the fact that cod liver oil is the greatest and simplest tonic known to medicine; the question is which is the best cod liver oil preparation—we claim and prove that Vinol is. It is delicious, and the weakened stomach can retain it. Try Vinol on our guarantee. W. M. Johnson," Druggist.

DEATH OF MRS. RHODES.

Eldest Daughter of Judge Geo. J. Arnow Passed Away Sunday.

The Sun regrets to chronicle the death of Mrs. Julia G. Rhodes, which sad event occurred at her home on Sunday morning shortly after 11 o'clock.

Deceased was the eldest daughter of Judge Geo. J. Arnow of this city. She was born in Micanopy September 16, 1854, and was consequently at the time of her death in her fifty-first year.

Mrs. Rhodes was married first to Archie Mixson, in 1875. Two children were born to them, after which Mr. Mixson died, and in 1881 the widow married Chas. Rhodes, with whom she has since lived happily. She was a devout member of the Baptist church, and a noble, Christian character.

Deceased is survived by a husband, Chas. Rhodes, and six children—Mrs. S. A. Pardee, Mrs. Mamie Kennard, Charles, Archie, James and Pearl Rhodes. She is also survived by a father, two sisters, and four grandchildren. Judge Arnow, her father, Benj. T. Arnow, a brother, and Mrs. Rosa Waters, a sister, arrived at the home from Gainesville about an hour after the death.

The funeral was held from the residence Sunday afternoon, Elder Mixson of the Baptist church officiating. The interment was in the Flemington cemetery. Friends of the family extend sincere sympathy in their bereavement.

Reflections of a Father

Upon the death of his first-born, Julia G. Rhodes, who died January 21, 1905:

One by one the leaves are falling
One by one our God is calling,
Our loved ones meeting in the sky,
We'll join them there bye and bye.

Julia, first-born, last to go,
To join the eight who went before;
Four are left to join the throng—
When must they go? Oh! God how long?

Must I, their father, old and worn,
Survive them all? By fresh grief torn,
To walk the path of life alone—
To weep in silence and to mourn?

Oh! cruel fate, to rend the tie
That binds each loved one to my heart.
When crushed by years, I'm forced to die,
Must I alone, alone depart?

Will no child be left to guide my feet
In struggling up the hill of life?
And brace me up 'till I can meet
My children dead and darling wife?

Negro Hanged for Murder.

Perry, Ga., Jan. 23.—Lige West, a negro, was hanged here Friday for murder. The crime for which West was hanged was the killing of his wife several weeks ago. The occasion attracted a crowd of both whites and blacks to Perry.

Spoiled Her Beauty

Harriet Howard of 239 W. 35th St., New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had salt rheum, or eczema, for years, but nothing would cure it, until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. Twenty-five cents at all druggists.

NEUBERT ESTATE SUIT.

Sister of Deceased Wishes to be Made a Party to the Suit.

The following from The Times-Union will prove of interest to readers of The Sun, since the deceased was well known here, having been engaged for many years as a baker:

"More claimants have come to the front for a share in the estate of Williams Neubert, deceased, late of Gainesville, Fla., who died in that city October 28, 1898.

"For some years a suit has been pending in the United States Court for the Southern district of Florida between claimants to this estate. It is the suit of Andreas L. Whitting and fourteen others, all residents of Germany and subjects of the Emperor of Germany, vs. Louis J. Burkhim, Marcus Endel and Jacob Endel, residents of Alachua county, Florida.

"Yesterday there was filed in the United States Court a petition of Marie Eliza Fugman, nee Neubert, and Rheihbold Fugman, her husband, to be made parties to the suit. The petitioners are from Leitz, Germany, and the petition was filed by William Wade Hampton and A. H. King, attorneys and counsellors at law.

"The petitioners represent that Marie Eliza Fugman, nee Neubert, was a sister of William Neubert, deceased, who died inteslate, and without issue. They also set up that she is an heir and distributee of said Neubert, deceased, and is entitled to an interest in proportionate part of said estate as such heir, towit, a one-eighth undivided interest."

The Morgans May Come.

Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Morgan of Jackson Mill, N. J., who spent the season here three years ago, are now pleasantly located at Miami. They are friends of Mrs. J. M. Graham, who is now in correspondence with them in an endeavor to induce them to spend some time here. Dr. Morgan is one of the most affable gentlemen it has ever been our pleasure to meet. He and his estimable wife made many friends here who have always remembered them kindly, and trust to have an opportunity of greeting them again before the season is over.

Dr. Morgan is quite a literary man, being the correspondent for several large papers. He does not write because he is compelled, for he has sufficient means to pay his expenses for at least a "week or two," but merely because he loves the work, and his heart is in it. He is as fluent and interesting a writer as he is a talker, which says a great deal.

Attention, K. of P.

There will be work in the Rank of Knight. A full attendance is desired, and visiting brothers will receive a cordial welcome.

Shot Full of Holes.

"I am 65 years old, and have been a great sufferer from headache all my life. One of Dr. Miles' circulars was left at my door, and what it contained about headache interested me, so that I determined to invest a dollar in their make of shot, and go gunning for that headache. The first charge brought it down, but I continued to shoot until the thing was shot so full of holes that I believe it will never come to life again. I consider it the work of a "good Samaritan," to spread the knowledge of what Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills will do." I. F. MOORE, 1352 Fairfax Ave., Bridgeport, Conn.

Headache, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Backache, Stomachache, Bearing Down Pains, Rheumatic Pain, or Pain from any cause yields readily to the soothing influence of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills upon the nerves, the irritated condition of which causes the pain. Harmless if taken as directed, and leave no disagreeable after-effects.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.

Equipped With Wheels.

The Gainesville Fire Department, which has enjoyed a reputation as one of the most efficient in the State, has been improved by the addition of a "bicycle brigade." Chief O'Neill and Assistant Chief Cushman have been supplied with handsome chainless Cleveland wheels, equipped with fog horns which can be heard for ten blocks.

In the event of a fire, if any person should be run down by the department bicycles it will be their own fault, as the warning notes will serve as a hint to clear the way.

Blood Poison from Lobster's Claw.

New York, Jan. 23.—Blood poisoning caused by the pinch of a lobster's claws, have caused the death of Otto Zimmerman, a chef in a big Harlem restaurant. Zimmerman's work was preparing lobsters, his skill for which was somewhat noted. He handled hundreds of crustaceans every day, and frequently was bitten. Finally one, particularly strong, caught him by the thumb and brought the blood. Swelling set in the next day, and in a few hours the chef died in great agony.

Veteran of Two Wars Dead.

New York, Jan. 23.—John Randolph Bull, a veteran of two wars and for many years a wholesale produce dealers in Louisville, Ky., is dead at his home in Bayonne, N. J. He served through the Mexican war with the Louisville Legion, and commanded a union regiment during the civil war. Colonel Bull was an intimate friend of General Lafayette and Henry Clay. He retired some years ago and made his home in the east.

Believe Skyscraper Hoodooed.

Columbia, O., Jan. 23.—Because of a series of 21 accidents since the erection of the Columbus Savings and Trust company skyscraper which was commenced last fall, and horrified by the plunging to death today from the ninth story of Alfred F. Smith, a bricklayer, all workmen on the estructure have quit, saying the building is "hoodooed." The negro laborers cannot be induced to return to work.

Fire at Ft. Worth, Tex.

Ft. Worth, Tex., Jan. 23.—At 3:30 this morning fire destroyed the John Ray Hardware company's building and contents on Main street, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, inflicting on both a loss of $45,000. The Brown & Vera Paint company suffered to the extent of $5,000, while the Empire Dry Goods and Clothing company is damaged on stock and building to the extent of $10,000. Adjoining buildings were damaged $10,000.

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, L. L. D.,

Of Waverley, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough, and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." 25, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The True Ideal.

The true ideal that should fill a man's heart and fire his energies is excellence in his own sphere, the living of his own particular life just as fully and nobly as he—not somebody else—can. True, this is an unknown quantity, but it is a real and attainable one. Day by day it is rising, and day by day a man may feel conscious of increased power. Whither it may lead him he cannot tell, but that by its guidance he will go farther and accomplish more than by any other he may rest assured. Attempting nothing impossible, he is doomed to no inevitable disappointment, nor is there any limit at which he may cease to strive.—Self Help.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903: "Having been troubled with lumbago at different times and tried one physician after another; then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of former soldiers." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Know this: No human being is superior in any respect to the woman who keeps her head on and her will in action, and develops her natural powers.

According to Professor Wiley of the Bureau of Chemistry there are few articles of food that are unpoisoned. We don't mind that, if only the cook doesn't leave.

The lecturer who says a woman should not marry until she can support a husband must want to put the men of this country on a level with foreign noblemen.

A Minneapolis philosopher thinks it is a mistake to make too many good resolutions on New Year's day, because of what happens to them so soon after they are made.

According to The Railroad Gazette, returns received from practically every car-building plant in the country show that approximately 62,950 cars were built last year.

The dishes and silver at the St. Regis Hotel in New York are marked with an anchor. This, it is supposed, is a hint to souvenir collectors who prey on hotels and restaurants.

A New York millionaire is going to build a hotel where honest working people may eat, drink and sleep for fifty cents a day. This will give Senator Tom Platt an opportunity to save something.

Last winter's session of Congress was the shortest "long session" for ninety years. If the President carries out his threats about forcing the railroad freight rate legislation this will be the longest "short session" on record.

A newspaper may devote a column in the praise or commendation of a man and he will forget it in a couple of weeks, but a two-line local that is not altogether pleasing will be remembered by the average reader for two years.

Former United States Senator William E. Mason of Illinois is president of the American Fruit and Steamship Co., organized at Mobile, Ala., with a capital of $5,000,000. Some of the larger fruit importers of Chicago, Saint Louis, Cincinnati and Louisville are concerned.

It is expected that there will be a determined fight in the Senate against Senator Scott's bill for reducing the cavalry regiments to ten, thus cutting them down one third. It is well known that the cavalry service is preferred to either the artillery or infantry by the army officers and men. Senator Scott claims that ten regiments of cavalry will answer all purposes of the United States. Cavalry is not necessary in the Philippines, except in a few isolated places. Since rifles and muskets of greater range have been introduced cavalry has gone into comparative desuetude. Unless the commander is insane there will never be another old time cavalry charge. Then the railroads crossing the country in so many directions make it possible for infantry to move with ten times the rapidity of cavalry. The day of cavalry, like the day of chivalry, is past.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, Jan. 23.—It is nip and tuck between society and politics in Washington at this season, and the race will go on till Congress and society pass under the wire on the fourth of March next, when the season will end with a great parade and an inaugural ball. Heretofore the soldiers from the surrounding States have been quartered in the different department buildings. These have been closed against them and it is proposed to give them a taste of the horrors of war by quartering them in tents with plank floors warmed by patent stoves and furnished with sleeping cots, folding chairs and a "bath" tub.

The President's term in his own right will begin at noon on the fourth of March next. He will be no longer under the sacred behest of carrying out the policy of McKinley, whatever that policy may have been. But if his edge has not been dulled by the routine and humdrum of office the country may expect the liveliest administration in its history.

The most interesting episode of the week has been the defense of Senator Mitchell by himself on the floor of the Senate. Thirty-three years ago this same Senator Mitchell was the youngest senator, and served at that time with Morton of Indiana, Thurman of Ohio, Conkling of New York, Andrew Johnson of Tennessee, mighty shades long since dead. About two years ago he was returned to the Senate from Oregon, and after an absence of twenty-five years he is again on the Senate floor, among the ghosts of his old confreres. He has been charged with pushing through a land patent, using his Senatorial influence, and getting paid therefor, a bribe of two thousand dollars. The evidence against him is most positive, provided a convicted and sentenced witness can be believed. Your correspondent heard his defense, which was little more than an impassioned denial of having received any money for his efforts in getting through the land claim. His denial appears to have been effective in convincing his friends of his innocence, but to have had no influence over those not predisposed in his favor.

The sentence of Senator Burton of Kansas during the last term of Congress and the exposure of a number of members who had been too active in pushing schemes through the postoffice department, together with the case of Senator Mitchell and Representative Hermann of Oregon, cannot but be a wholsome warning to our law givers, admonishing them to confine their activities more strictly to their legislative work, warning them that they cannot act as attorneys for their constituents or friends. Everything points in the direction of cleaner statesmanship and a higher and more rigid construction of the duties of the legislative branches of our government.

It will be remembered that during the recent presidential campaign Mr. Cortelyou, the Republican manager, repeated more than once that if President Roosevelt were elected he would be elected without a pledge or promise to any man. President Roosevelt has been elected, but it need not be assumed that he has nothing to give his friends or to those who worked unbought to secure his election. There are many Democrats holding desirable offices in Washington, there are many Republicans, who, to put it mildly, are unfit to hold the offices for which they have drawn pay for from four to twenty-four years. There has never been a President so thoroughly acquainted with the weakness and rottenness of the Civil Service as the present executive. Two or three weeks ago the National Civil Service Reform League held a three days' session, variegated with social functions, in Washington. It was a dilettante body and its time was taken up with academic discussions about the retirement of aged clerks and a system of pensions for those long in the service. A delegation waited on the President to know if he had anything to communicate, and his laconic reply that his communication on the subject of Civil Service would be in his work, was doubtless significant of what he is now doing and will do. A number of persons have been informed that their resignations would not be refused, and it is almost certain that the long hoped for improvement of a service which, with the exception of that of Russia and China, is the most corrupt and moribund on the planet, will be accomplished.

My charges against the Civil Service of the United States will doubtless seem extravagant and exaggerated to far-off, wholesale admirers of our government and to those who imagine that it is impossible for the stars and stripes to float over anything that is not entirely and purely good. But to those who have been behind the scenes, who have seen the greasy ropes and pulleys by which splendid stage effects are produced, there is nothing extravagant in the statement. There are thousands of persons receiving the pay of the government who perform no adequate service for that pay—no service in fact that might not just as well be undone. They are the relicts and relatives and friends and henchmen of members and senators and cabinet ministers, some of them long since dead and some of them still in Washington and influential. The present system of appointment under Civil Service examination will doubtless result, in time, in the purification and improvement of the service, but why should the government have to wait a quarter of a century for this improvement and purification, when thousands of well equipped and competent persons are ready to take the places of these incapables? The government work in many departments is far in arrears simply because these people appointed by favor will not work, have never worked, and do not know how to work.

A Philadelphia judge has ruled that "the only kind of kissing permissible under the law is the kind that occurs in the parlor when the lights are turned low," and that "the only safe kiss that can be given is the one after which no tales are told."

Mrs. Mary Olive Root, widow of the late Dr. Geo. F. Root, author of "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," "The Vacant Chair," and other popular songs of the Civil War period, died at her home in Chicago recently. Mrs. Root was 79 years old.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

REACHING TOWARD OCALA

The Long Distance Service of the East Florida Telephone Company Proving a Big Convenience, and the Service is Growing and Improving.

One of the most convenient additions to this section in recent years is the service afforded by the long distance lines of the East Florida Telephone Company.

This company at the beginning was more of an experiment than anything else. Realizing, however, the need of a telephone service between Gainesville and Arredondo, Palmer, Micanopy, Rocky Point and other places, Manager Voyle thought the venture would prove profitable, with the result that he installed the system at considerable expense.

The East Florida Telephone Company now has lines extending from Gainesville to Archer and intermediate points, to Fairbanks, and to Micanopy and intermediate points. There are now about fifty telephones on the line, which prove a great convenience to the merchants of Gainesville and the people of the country. The matter of a quick and convenient service has been realized, and those who use the 'phones would not do without them for any reasonable consideration. There are at present no instruments at Wacahoota, Tacoma and Clyatt, but those desiring 'phones in these sections may now get them.

The latest subscribers to the system are Crawford & Davis, who have just installed a 'phone.

The company began Monday to extend the line from Micanopy to McIntosh and other points in that vicinity, and within the next few days it will be possible for Gainesville people to talk with perfect ease to McIntosh. It is the ultimate intention of the company to extend the service to Cedar Key, Ocala, Waldo and Melrose, which will afford a most excellent service.

WINDSOR TO THE FRONT.

Many Northern People Have Arrived And Are Enjoying Life There.

Among the visitors to this city Saturday was Hon. J. A. Rosborough of Windsor, reperesentative-elect from Alachua county.

Mr. Rosborough states that Windsor is on a young boom now. A great many Northern people, a majority of whom are from Indiana, have arrived, and are enjoying themselves hunting and fishing. The crowd as an aggregation is a jolly one, and as a result Windsor is quite lively at this season.

In all there are about fifty visitors at Windsor now, with the probability of an increase in a short time.

Bought Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and Sent it to Friends.

Mr. F. W. J. Fletcher, a druggist in Victoria, Australia, says: "A customer of mine was so pleased with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which she had used for her children when suffering from colds and croup, that during a fortnight's time she obtained at my shop, nine bottles, which she sent to her friends in different parts of the State, telling them how much good it had done and advised them to give it a trial." For sale by all druggists.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

COUNTY PRISONERS.

Now Located at the McDonald Turpentine Farm, Fairbanks.

On Monday morning Sheriff Fennell, assisted by W. Dixon, landed twenty county prisoners at the J. B. McDonald turpentine farm at Fairbanks, where they will be worked, most of them having been transferred from the Dutton mines near Newberry. They were certainly a varied looking lot, among them being several boys of not more than fifteen years and three being so badly crippled they were taken by wagan the seven miles, while Sheriff Fennell, mounted on horseback and carrying a strong argument over his shoulder in the form of a shot gun, marched the remainder to their new quarters.

At Fairbanks they were greeted by Doctor Godwin, who showed them to the new stockade which is now nearly completed, and they were stowed away to get ready to produce a supply of naval stores for the trade.

Judging from ths looks of several of the "gang," the market will not be flooded through their efforts, although they will have to hustle around somewhat to earn the $18.50 per month this firm pays the county for their hire.

Water Route Is Solution.

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 23.—The twelfth annual meeting of the South Carolina Bar association, which has been in session here for two days, closed this evening with an address by Hon. Hugh R. Garden, of New York city, formerly president of the Southern society. Among the subjects touched upon by Mr. Garden was the proposed inland water route, which, he said, was the solution of the transportation problem in the south. At the conclusion of the address the annual banquet was served.

Price of Sugar Goes Down.

Stn Francisco, Jan. 23.—Tee arrival here of the first cargo of 15,000 bags of sugar from the Honolulu sugar company has caused a drop of 10 cents in the market price of beet sugar. The consignment was distributed to three firms who refused to take part in or join the re-organization of the local traffic and commercial association which is said to have hitherto controlled the sugar situation here, and are now acting on an independent basis.

Robbers Return Girl's Ring.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—A little girl's grief over the loss of a ring her dying mother gave her has touched the hearts of three Chicago burglars. The ring came back through the mails today, barely 24 hours after it had been torn from the finger of 15-year-old Vera Fowler, grand-daughter of Millionaire Eugene Fishburn, in whose mansion the burglary took place.

Pleasant and Most Effective.

T. J. Chambers, Editor Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes Dec. 25, 1902: "With pleasure and unsolicited by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it in my family and can cheerfully affirm it is the most effective and pleasantest remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

EAST INDIAN METHODS.

A Servant's Subtle but Unsuccessful Scheme For Revenge.

A trade journal tells a story of an adventure which nearly cost one of its correspondents in India his life. The Indian merchant was a wealthy man who had got on well with the natives, but two of his servants had had a quarrel over a girl whom they both wooed. The merchant interfered in the fight. The unsuccessful suitor, Laj, began to make trouble, and his rival, the husband, warned the merchant against him. Nothing happened for some months. Then the merchant went away on business. On his return he was told that Laj had been caught in his bedroom and locked up.

In the east this meant trouble. The merchant called his servants and had a thorough search made of the house. They examined every trunk, bureau and bedstead, every picture, statue and crevice in the wall and crack in the floor, expecting to find a hooded cobra or other poisonous reptile. They scrutinized every knob, handle and garment to see if it had been smeared with poison or with juices which attracted venomous creatures. Then they searched the wine cellar, the pantry and the storeroom. But they found nothing.

The merchant was tired and after eating went to the cabinet where he kept his cigars. It was a large case of teak and plate glass, with an old fashioned silver Indian lock.

As he was about to insert the key in the keyhole Laj's successful rival, who had been active in the search, cried, "Look out, sahib; some one has been meddling with that lock!"

They examined the keyhole and found traces of wax. When they opened the case the merchant found everything apparently untouched. Five boxes of cigars were unopened. He had opened the sixth before he went away and removed a few cigars. As he took this box up he noticed on it the marks of fingers.

The cigars looked as if they had not been disturbed. He was about to take one when he noticed that something was wrong with the head. A second and a third were like the first. In each a small, almost imperceptible rose thorn had been inserted, and on it was a dab of brown slime still moist the same color as the cigar.

"Do not touch them, sahib," said the Indian. "They are poisoned."

The merchant sat down and wrote a note to the police. In half an hour an officer appeared with Laj under guard. The merchant stated the case to the officer and, taking one of the cigars, handed it to Laj, with the command, "Take it and smoke it."

The man turned gray and refused. His guilt was proved.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of Dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

MAN HELD FOR KIDNAPING.

Charged With Taking Young Girl from Home.

Valdosta, Ga., Jan. 23.—Henry Johnson, who was arrested at Hahira a few days ago on the charge of kidnaping the daughter of Dock Harnage, of this county, was given a commitment trial before Justice Kingsbery here and was bound over to the superior court under a bond of $500.

The girl, who is 14 years old, testified that she was badly treated by her parents, and did not want to stay at home, preferring to live with Johnson and his wife, who, she said, had given her good clothing and a pleasant home.

The statements of the daughter were denied by the father and mother, alleging that their misfreatment consisted only in their efforts to make their daughter obey them, as she was willful and hard to control.

WOMAN SHOT WILL HUDSON.

Night Before Hudson Had Wounded Her Husband.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Jan. 23.—Will Hudson, a well known young man, was shot and probably fatally wounded by a woman named Annie Brown, who had persuaded him to come to her room at the corner of Ninth and King street.s

The shooting was the aftermath of another affray last Saturday night in which Hudson shot and slightly wounded George Brown, a man the woman claimed as her husband. Hudson claims that the woman told him she bore him no ill feeling about the first shooting, and induced him to go to her room to talk over the matter.

Two bullets lodged in Hudson's body and only one of them could be extracted.

Do Not Suppress a Cough.

When you have a cough do not try to suppress it, but remove the cause. The cough is only a symptom of some disease, and that disease is what you should cure, then the cough will stop of itself. The most common cause of coughing is a cold. Anodynes will promptly suppress the cough, and preparations containing chloroform, opium, etc., are used for that purpose, but they do not cure the cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on the other hand does not suppress the cough, but relieves it by removing from the throat and lungs the mucus which obstructed the breathing and allaying the irritation and tickling in the throat. It also opens the secretions and effectually and permanently cures the cold as well as the cough. For sale by all druggists.

FRUIT MYSTERIES.

The Banana Is Seedless, Though Nobody Knows Why.

The banana is seedless, or nearly so, and has been for centuries, though nobody knows why. It is propagated by suckers and possibly had no seeds when it was first found in its wild state. The banana is a modified berry. Cutting the fruit through the middle you will sometimes see a few little brown spots, which are the rudimentary seeds. Occasionally the banana does actually produce a few seeds.

The pineapple is seedless, being propagated likewise from suckers and from slips. The eggplant, which is a fruit, botanically speaking, is occasionally seedless. This plant is able to produce developed fruit whether the blossom is fertilized or not. Horticulturists are endeavoring at the same time to rid fruit plants of thorns. Some oranges and lemons are very thorny—for example, the high priced King orange, which is the best of the mandarins. The first trees were brought to the United States from Cochin China. In Florida its thorniness has been reduced by selecting buds from the branches with the fewest thorns. Thorns are objectionable because they puncture the oranges and lemons when the branches are blown about by the wind. Efforts are being made to get rid of the thorns on raspberry and blackberry plants simply for convenience in picking the fruit. The thorns are meant by nature to protect the plant from animals. Cultivators select those plants which happen to be thornless or nearly so.

When to Exercise.

When to exercise is an important consideration. If the morning only is available the exercise should be light. Particularly is this the case if one is engaged in any work. The supply of energy must not be drawn from at the beginning of the day. The afternoon is perhaps the best time for exercise, when one has gained strength from the absorption of the morning and noon meals. Those who exercise vigorously at night should eat a midday dinner. Exercise should always precede bathing and not, as a rule, follow it. In this respect the ancient Greeks showed great wisdom. Exercise and bathing they called the two pillars of strength. Exercise was Hercules and bathing Apollo. Both were regarded with equal importance, and neither was complete without the other.

INHERITED SCROFULA

When a child I had a very severe attack of Diphtheria, which came near proving fatal. Upon recovery the glands of the neck were very much enlarged, and after the free use of iodine, the right one was reduced to its normal size, but the left one continued to grow—very slowly at first, until it was about the size of a goose egg, which began to press on the windpipe, causing difficult breathing, and became very painful. An incision was made and a large quantity of pus discharged. The gland was removed, or as much as could with safety be taken out. For ten years I wore a little piece of cloth about an inch long in my neck to keep the place open. During this time I had to have it cut open by the doctor every time I took cold or the opening clogged. In the Spring or early Summer of 1884 I was persuaded by my wife to use S. S. S., which I did, strictly in accordance with directions. I took twenty-six large bottles, and was entirely cured, for I have not suffered since that time. B. S. RAGLAND.

She spent nearly all her income in Philanthropic undertakings.

A Grim Tragedy

Is daily enacted in thousands of homes, as death claims, in each one, another victim of consumption or pneumonia. But when coughs and colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley of Oaklandon, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1,00 by all druggists. Trial bottles free.

CRUSTY CARLYLE.

An Anecdote Which Illustrates His Disagreeable Disposition.

Carlyle suffered from dyspepsia and disappointment. He was therefore neither oversympathetic in intercourse with his friends nor fair in his estimates of other writers.

Though he personally liked Tennyson, he spoke with impatience of his "cobbling his odes," dismissed Jane Austen's novels as "dish washings," Hallam, the historian, as "dry as dust" and Goldsmith as an "Irish blackguard."

Even the writers of editorials in the press were saluted with this hard saying: "What are these fellows doing? They only serve to cancel one another." A characteristic anecdote illustrates his cruel disposition, which provoked him to inflict pain even on a friend.

An artist who frequented Carlyle's house painted a picture of him in his dressing gown smoking a pipe by the fireside and Mrs. Carlyle in an armchair sitting opposite him. The picture was hung at one of the Royal academy's exhibitions and, though not a striking work of art, was purchased by Lord Ashburton, Carlyle's friend, for £500.

The delighted artist hurried off to the Carlyles, expecting congratulations on the sale and some manifestation of pleasure on their part at having such a value set on a picture of themselves and their domestic interior. He delivered his glad tidings, but all the response he received from Carlyle was:

"Well, in my opinion, £500 was just £495 too much."

Poor Woman.

Mrs. Gidday—I thought you were entirely satisfied with your hat. Mrs. Dresser—So I was until my husband got the bill. Mrs. Gidday—Oh, why should his growling worry you? Mrs. Dresser—But that was the trouble. He didn't growl at all, showing that I might easily have got a more expensive one.—Philadelphia Press.

READ THIS.

Ripley, Tenn., June 1, 1901.

Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis Mo.—Dear Sir: Having tried various remedies without satisfactory results, I was persuaded to give your "Texas Wonder" a trial. I have used one bottle, and although my case is one of long standing that baffled the skill of the best physician, yet it yielded at once to "The Texas Wonder," which I heartily recommend to all suffering from kidney and bladder troubles.

Yours truly,
W. H. BRUTON,
Pastor Baptist Church, Ripley, Tenn.

In the Mayor's Court.

Walter Mack is a "coon" who "do b'lieve in 'joyin' hisself." Walter, intent on having a good time Saturday night, and with a selfish disposition which kept him from treating his friends, it is said drank a solid quart of Tharp Billiams or some other kind of "booze" Saturday night, with the result that he could not walk that straight and narrow path required in Gainesville these days. He took up the whole sidewalk, and because he could not get around Will Granger, a poor one-legged fellow who was hobbling along the best he could, he wanted to fight and was arrested.

This piece of indiscretion cost Mack $2.50 and the trimmings in the mayor's court Monday morning, to say nothing of the embarrassment which he must have experienced in his arrest.

"I tried to git by dat nigger, 'cause I saw he was not in a fix to git by me," remarked Granger. "I did not want to gib him no trouble, but the policeman was dere an' grabbed him 'fore I knew it."

Mack paid his fine, but will have something to remember for a while at least. It costs money to get "gay" if the cop happens to be around.
